trita,

joking aside, it would be very good for you to spend a bit more time in iran. it will leave you more confused than ever before about what is the best way to deal with the status quo. The anger that you feel for the US policies will be trumped by the anger you will feel for the IRI. then, like Hadi and I, you will need a long sabbatical to go through anger management.

seriously do think about trying to spend a chunk of time each year there. you and amina are always welcome to stay at my place.
