

---

From: Siamak Namazi [snamazi@atiehbahar.com]

Sent: Tuesday, May 23, 2006 1:04 AM

To: tparsi@jhu.edu

Subject: FW: two things

Trita, this is what I have so far. If he was also in 6th Majles, Hadi should know him. Imam Sadegh University is headed by Mahdavy Kani and a hot bed of training conservatives. Believe it or not, I think Hadi might have taught a course or two there.

s

-
1. Sure. I'm ready whenever you have time.
  2. Regarding Kazem Jalali:

He is an MP of Shahroud, Semnan province in the 7th Majles and is believed to be close to the modern conservative camp. He was born in Gorgan in 1967 and holds a PhD in political sciences from Imam Sadegh University. Some sources believe that he has reasonable positions. He was also an MP in the 6th Majels.